Things to Know

Your child will be switching classes next year for reading and math. Mrs. Silva will be your child's reading teacher and then returning to me for their math.

Math: In math we will be using Envisions mainly, but supplementing with Eureka, Prodigy, and Khan Academy from time to time.

Reading: In reading we will be using Journeys and setting up several "Interactive Notebooks".

Science/Social Studies: In science and social studies, we will be researching information and completing projects/experiments.
